

Mountain

LIVE FREE AND RIDE

Whaleback Mountain has a special place in the hearts of many locals and visitors alike. Whether you've been skiing or riding here since high school or happened upon the mountain while visiting on a ski trip, the memories you make here will last a lifetime. The friendly staff create an encouraging and fun atmosphere where everyone feels welcome to learn or improve on their shredding skills.

Here are some quick links you might find useful:

Snow Report

Trail Map

Whale's Tale Pub

Terrain Park

With 85 acres boasting 30 trails, Whaleback has something for everyone. Beginners can enjoy a smooth ride up the magic carpet, while the more adventurous can hit up the terrain park with plenty of kickers, boxes, and jibs to excite even the most jaded dare devil. Whether you're taking the Summit Chair up 1,800 feet to the summit to show off your skills on Upper Face or maybe just a cruiser down Ivory Run, there's something for every ability level. And with 39% blue trails, it's also a great place to work on your skills while having fun with your friends and family.

With an average annual snowfall of 110 inches and 80% snow-making capacity, Whaleback is a great place to enjoy the pow! We offer ski and snowboard lessons and rentals, and with accommodations close by, Whaleback is a great winter destination for your next vacation.

Check out the links below for more information:

Keep up to date on the latest conditions with the snow report

Study up and find your next line on the trail map

All this talk about skiing making you thirsty/hungry? Check out the tasty offerings available in the Whale's Tale Pub

Scope out the exciting new developments in the terrain park